

Child Abuse: Identification & Intervention

Estimated time to complete: 1 hour

Course Description

SafeSchools Child Abuse: Identification & Intervention course provides background information on the different types of child abuse/child maltreatment; offers training scenarios for physical abuse, neglect, sexual abuse, and emotional abuse; identifies indicators to assist in abuse and neglect; states the legal responsibilities of reporting and handling student disclosures; and uses the Internet, pdf files, and SafeSchools documents to provide specialized reference materials.

Common Themes

- Your responsibility as a professional will always dictate your response to the situation.
- A child's safety must always be the first consideration.
- School personnel should always believe children.
- Any child is a potential victim and any adult can be the potential perpetrator.
- Child abuse is never a child's fault, even if they have misbehaved.

Author

Eve Pearl is the Executive Director of the Council on Child Abuse of Southern Ohio, Inc. She also provides training and consulting services for numerous parent, professional, educational, and community groups on child abuse prevention and related issues.

Training Environments

SafeSchools is ideal for a blended learning environment, complementing in-service or video training, or as a stand-alone training course. The SafeSchools approach engages the learner in an e-learning environment; while a Compliance Management System automatically tracks his/her progress through the courses. This assists the district administrator or training coordinator in demonstrating compliance.
