Arizona School Risk Retention Trust, Inc. Partners with Scenario Learning for Online Safety Training

Phoenix, AZ (December 17, 2014)—The Arizona School Risk Retention Trust, Inc. (the Trust) and Scenario Learning, a leading developer of safety and compliance solutions for schools and workplaces, announced a partnership to bring the SafeSchools and SafeColleges Online Staff Training Systems to the Trust's 250 members. Members now have complimentary access to a suite of award-winning online courses covering important school and campus safety topics. Twelve courses will be available to K–12 districts and community colleges, all with applicability to some of the most common exposures.

Since 1986, the Trust has provided comprehensive and responsive risk management solutions that support educational excellence in Arizona schools and colleges. The partnership with Scenario Learning exemplifies the Trust's commitment to programs and trainings that are specifically tailored to Trust members. "The Trust is proud to offer our members high-quality training resources through Scenario Learning, which will help to educate district and community college staff on a variety of important topics," said Mike Tiffany, executive director of the Trust. "Trust members will be pleased with the course options, reporting capabilities, and ease of use that the SafeSchools and SafeColleges systems provide."

All SafeSchools and SafeColleges courses are 100 percent school- and college-focused and written by the nation's leading safety experts. Using the training systems, administrators can easily track training completions, monitor progress, download compliance reports, and view or print training certificates.

Through the new partnership, K–12 Trust members have access to courses on defensive driving; playground supervision; slips, trips, and falls; and more. Community college Trust members have access to courses in areas that include termination practice and procedure; the Clery Act; campus sexual violence; and others.

Members looking for additional training opportunities can upgrade to the entire SafeSchools or SafeColleges online course libraries, at a discounted rate.

Trust members who would like to get started with SafeSchools or SafeColleges Training should contact Scenario Learning at 1.800.434.0154 or info@scenariolearning.com.
